

Question 1

Distinguish between any two gender-based perspectives on language, highlighting the significance of each.

Question 2

In strategic communications, it is important to avoid gender discriminatory language.” Discuss.

Question 3

Examine the contention that, ‘All C4D interventions need to consider the inter-related social ecology when designing communication programmes.’

Question 4

Analyse the assertion that, ‘The transformative leadership style is one which is compatible with women and the stereotypes associated with them.’

Question 5

Explore some of the media strategies that may be used in the diffusion and participatory approaches to communication for development.

END