

Question 1

Examine the causes, symptoms and treatment of any one psychotic disorder.

Question 2

You have observed pathological cleanliness in one of your family members because of their excessive fear of contamination from germs. Explain what your course of action would be to help them get intervention.

Question 3

Discuss strategies that can be made to ensure that people suffering from depression get professional help.

Question 4

Patricia was referred to a Psychology Clinic with suicidal thoughts and suicidal attempts after an argument with her boyfriend. Patricia ingested a bottle of prescription pain medication and drank a small amount of a household cleaning product. Patricia was once hospitalized for major depression and suicidal statement.

As a Clinical psychologist make a psychological assessment using basic steps in the Psychodynamic to make a psych diagnosis on the case above.

Question 5

Using one psychological disorder of your choice explain the preventive, treatment and management strategies that can be used for that disorder.

END