

Question 1

Compare and contrast the modernization paradigm and the dependency paradigm in understanding global development challenges.

Question 2

Critically assess the effectiveness of development interventions based on modernization theory in addressing issues such as poverty, inequality, and social injustice.

Question 3

Discuss the roles of social workers in addressing causes of food insecurity and poverty

Question 4

Explore the impact of urbanization on vulnerable populations.

Question 5

Discuss the roles of social workers in addressing gender-based violence and promoting of women's access to justice, resources, and decision-making processes at local level.

END