

Question 1

As a social worker working with persons with disabilities illustrate how you can integrate social work methods to drug and substance abuse in a community of your choice.

Question 2

The remedial approach is inappropriate to address poverty . Discuss

Question 3

Consider yourself a social worker working in a rural community implementing a project to promote child protection , how can you integrate any three social work methods ?

Question 4

Examine the utility of research as a social work method in addressing the problem of child protection in an urban setting of your choice.

END