

Question 1

As a social worker working in an urban area to address the problem of homelessness, what social work methods can you adopt ,

Question 2

Compare and contrast remedial social work and development social work

Question 3

Consider yourself a social worker working in a rural community implementing a project to promote child protection , how can you can integrate knowledge form other social science fields to social work practice ?

Question 4

Examine the utility of research as a social work method in addressing the problem of juvenile delinquency in an urban setting of your choice.

END