

Question 1

The ACERWC recently acknowledged that children with albinism face unique challenges that require urgent and tailored responses to ensure the full enjoyment of their rights and welfare. Suggest strategies to the Government of Zimbabwe and civil society actors that ensure children with albinism enjoy their rights and welfare.

Question 2

Analyse the definition of a child using legal instruments and various cultural - religious constructions of a child.

Question 3

Explore the assertion that, 'Attempts to eliminate child labour must be sensitive to the diversity of childhood.'

Question 4

Discuss the importance of understanding the stages of child development for child rights.

Question 5

Examine the utility of the welfare model of juvenile justice in understanding juvenile delinquency and offending in your country.

END