

1. Examine the assertion that, 'Culture is a key determinant in the formulation of social policies related to the welfare of vulnerable groups.'
2. Discuss the eclecticism of social work.
3. Explore five methods of Social Work that are essential to Social Work practice.
4. Evaluate the contribution of social security in terms of improving the welfare of people in developing countries.
5. Analyze the role of social work in promoting social welfare in social problem and promoting human welfare.