

Question 1

Examine the usefulness of any THREE aims of community work when engaging community members who feel disconnected from decision-making in the development process.

Question 2

Use examples to describe any THREE skills that can be employed by a community worker to sustain community development initiatives over time in a chosen area.

Question 3

Demonstrate the significance of community work interventions in addressing inequality within a community.

Question 4

'Leveraging existing resources can be key to address resource gaps.' Examine this statement.

Question 5

Outline and discuss any THREE social work roles that are critical in the provision of appropriate community services.

END