

Question 1

Demonstrate the utility of any FOUR functions of community work in improving living standards in communities that face challenges due to environmental degradation.

Question 2

Using practical examples elaborate on any THREE skills necessary to ensure participation of women in a chosen empowerment programme.

Question 3

With the aid of examples analyse the significance of education in improving health outcomes of community members.

Question 4

Use examples to critique the usefulness of community work in addressing contemporary problems in Zimbabwe.

Question 5

Outline and discuss any FOUR barriers hindering easy access to participation and involvement of community members in Zimbabwe.

END