

Question 1

Explain the concept of conformity in social psychology paying attention to informational and normative influences.

Question 2

Discuss the principles of Social Learning Theory as proposed by Albert Bandura.

Question 3

Examine how self-evaluations affect social interactions and self-functioning.

Question 4

Discuss Fritz Heider's attribution theory and discuss its significance in understanding human behavior. Provide examples to illustrate your points.

Question 5

Describe at least six (6) types of non-verbal cues and explain how each type contributes to conveying meaning in social interactions.

END