

Question 1

Casework is a primary social work method which sets a stage for other social work methods. Discuss.

Question 2

Mention and explain the sources of authority in Casework.

Question 3

There are four key elements of the casework relationship which are acceptance, support, stimulation and expectation. Giving relevant examples, describe each element.

Question 4

Discuss the importance of recording and record-keeping when working with individuals and families.

Question 5

Collaboration with other professionals and stakeholders is of great importance. Analyze the role of collaboration in casework.

END