

Question 1

With reference to a developing country of your choice, discuss the relevance of the Advocacy Coalition Framework to the resolution of social challenges affecting that country.

Question 2

Examine the nexus between human, financial and material resources in the development, implementation and monitoring and evaluation of social policy.

Question 3

Utilising relevant examples from developing countries, discuss the major determinants of social policies.

Question 4

Identify a social problem confronting developing countries and utilise the policy process to resolve that challenge.

Question 5

Examine the social policy trajectory undertaken by the Government of Zimbabwe following the attainment of independence in 1980.

END